

Across cultures and throughout history, the torch has symbolized wisdom, learning, and hope. For Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, it shines especially bright as a reminder of the power of women supporting women.

To carry that light forward, the Past Presidents of the Nashville City Council of Beta Sigma Phi created the Nashville Beta Sigma Phi Torch Fund at Community Foundation of Middle Tennessee. This fund uplifts gifted young women in the fine and performing arts—helping them turn raw talent into realized potential.

Teachers, ministers, counselors, and other caring adults often recognize these aspiring artists—girls with extraordinary creativity but limited resources. Through this fund, support can come in many forms: music lessons, tutoring, instruments, art supplies, dance classes, and countless other tools to help their gifts shine.

The Nashville Beta Sigma Phi Torch Fund exists thanks to the vision of Beta Sigma Phi's past presidents and the generosity of hundreds of donors who believe in investing in the next generation of women artists. Together, they are lighting the way for creativity, opportunity, and brighter futures.

Do you have a sister,
mother, or friend
celebrating a birthday?

Do you have a loved
one whose memory
you wish to honor?

Do you have a colleague or an employee who deserves special recognition?

A Contribution to the Nashville Beta Sigma Phi Torch Fund is a wonderful way to honor or memorialize all friends and family, but especially those who have a special love for the fine and performing arts. More importantly, many will be especially honored that a young woman or many young women will benefit in their name.

All contributions are tax-deductible.

Each honored individual or identified family member or friend of a memorialized individual is notified with an announcement of your act of generosity.

(No gift amounts are divulged.)
